

Magellan hosted its 2nd annual S.T.A.R. Summit on May 8 in Cambria County to celebrate recovery and resiliency efforts

Magellan Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania hosted its second annual S.T.A.R. (Success, Treatment, Advocacy, Recovery) Summit on May 8 in Johnstown at the Pasquerilla Conference Center, in collaboration with Behavioral Health of Cambria County and the Cambria County Behavioral Health Services Program. This event highlighted positive stories involving recovery and resiliency in Cambria County and approximately 150 local stakeholders, providers and community members attended.

The S.T.A.R. Summit included:

- A keynote presentation, “Hope-Inspiring Relationships”
- A breakout session on Recovery Intervention
- Three ignite sessions:
 - Cambria County Suicide Prevention Task Force
 - Cambria County Community Support Program (CSP)
 - Cambria County Drug Coalition Recovery Workgroup
- A resource fair

This event also recognized leaders in the local community that have had a true impact on recovery and resiliency. The following awards were presented to the winners in attendance.

S.T.A.R. Summit awards:

- Excellence in Advocacy by an Elected Official
- Excellence in Mental Health Treatment
- Excellence in Substance Use Disorders Treatment
- Leadership in Recovery
- Individual Achievement Award
- Recovery Support Professional of the Year
- Excellence in Family Support
- Community Impact/Excellence in Advocacy

“This annual event is a wonderful opportunity to recognize the impact of our award winners in particular and to celebrate the collective efforts of our community around the principles of recovery and resiliency,” said Tracy Shultz, director of operations for Magellan Healthcare in Cambria County.
