Recovery Community Center Proposals

Behavioral Health of Cambria County (BHoCC) seeks to implement a Recovery Community Center with one provider in early 2023. Proposals are requested for a Recovery Community Center. The Recovery Community Center in Cambria County will serve individuals in recovery with Substance Use Disorder (SUD) by offering a drop-in like model in a supportive community based environment that is fully peer operated. The program will be funded through county reinvestment dollars initially, to be sustained by contributions by Cambria County grant makers.
